

Wings of the Morning

Wings of the Morning (2002), an Old Testament setting, came about as a result of a request from the Durban Serenade Choir for a new choral piece to sing on their first UK tour. The sixty rich Zulu voices of the choir made an inspiring sound at its premiere in Cambridge.